More Than 60,000 Visitors Tour Adams County's Apple Orchards Sunday Afternoon

Despite rain, wind, fog and mud throughout the eastern half of the country more than 60,000 people braved the elements Sunday to observe Adams County's annual Apple Blossom festival.

Through almost constant showers, crowds from nearly every county in Pennsylvania and from at least five neighboring states began arriving at Blossom Headquarters, South Mountain Fairgrounds, as early as 9:30 a.m. and continued in a steady stream until late afternoon. Roy Heckenluber, reporting for the Poultry Federation, said that about 2,300 adults and children were served barbecued chicken dinners between 11 a.m. and 5 p.m. More than 100 local poultrymen and wives worked at the fairgrounds all day to serve guests. The dinner line at times extended 25 feet beyond the entrance to the dining hall.

Apple Smorgasbord
Highlight of the dinner was the apple smorgasbord sponsored by fruitgrower wives and their friends, who provided some 150 different apple dishes for dinner guests.

Copies of the recipes were available and were taken by the visitors. Among the recipes were those for apple jelly rolls, apple butter, scotch filling, apple butter taffy rolls, apple oatmeal bars, apple chutney, apple torte, apple cake, French apple pie, apple chiffon pie, several varieties of apple cream pies, apple coffecake, apple loaf, apple strudel, Dutch apple cake, apple scallop, apple breads, apple-fruit cake, apple cheese crisp, apple pandowdy, apple cookies and even apple coleslaw. Mrs. Grace Garretson, chairman, advised Monday that containers to be returned have been removed to her home at Flora Dale where owners may collect them.

Queen Is Crowned
Adams County's new apple queen, 17-year-old Miss Marian Grist, was crowned in the blossom-decorated pavilion at 2:30 o'clock before a crowd of 400 spectators. She was attended by the Misses Nancy Scott, Marilyn Kump, Jane Trostle, Nancy Peters, Wainette Vines, Barbara Taylor, Darlene Winand, Marie Coble, Ann Lott, Vivian Geiselman, Anna Stambaugh and Nancy Davis.

William B. Wilson, president of the fruitgrowers' association, crowned the queen, who succeeds Miss Joan Heller as the industry's representative.

Between showers the Queen's court moved outdoors to a specially built coronation platform so that hundreds of amateur photographers could record the event.

VETERAN KNOWN HERE DIES TODAY

John F. Huzvar, 75, a veteran of 25 years' service in the U.S. Army who retired five years ago at the end of 20 years' service with the Pennsylvania State Police, was dead on arrival at the Chambersburg Hospital this morning at 5:15 o'clock from his Fayetteville R. 2 home, near Caledonia.

The Franklin County coroner was investigating. The probable cause was listed as a thrombosis. Mr. Huzvar had returned only last week from Walter Reed Hospital in Washington where he had submitted to surgery.

He was a native of Scranton and was a son of the late August and Johanna (Belanska) Huzvar. His (Continued On Page 2)

County Ministers Elect Dr. Reaser

The Rev. Dr. Paul L. Reaser, pastor of the St. James Lutheran Church here, was elected president of the Adams County Ministerium at the monthly meeting of that group this morning in the Methodist Church in Orttanna. The retiring president, the Rev. Robert Rezasch, of East Berlin, presided.

The other officers named included: Vice president, the Rev. Norman Marden, pastor of the Bendersville Church; secretary, the Rev. Robert A. MacAskill, Gettysburg Presbyterian pastor; treasurer, the Rev. John Martin, pastor of the United Church of Christ of New Oxford.

The Rev. William Fenstermaker, Gettysburg Methodist pastor, conducted devotions for the session this morning. The next meeting will be held in September at the local Methodist Church. Fifteen attended today's meeting.

PLAN PROGRAM FOR MOTHERS

The Women's Society of Christian Service of the Evangelical United Brethren Church will hold its annual Mother-Daughter social Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock with all mothers of the church invited to attend.

A program will be presented with Miss Yoko Ishikawa of Gettysburg College as the guest speaker. Scripture will be read by Mrs. George Coleman and prayer will be given by Mrs. Fred Hinkle. Mrs. Joseph Temple will sing "My Mother's Bible" and Mrs. Paul Little will give a reading. Girls of the Junior choir will sing and the following will also take part in the doll festival: Virginia Slonaker, Linda Smith, Nancy Lentz, Janice Lentz, Cynthia Deardorff, Roxey Gorman, Nancy Deardorff and Connie Cosen.

There will be a humorous reading by Janet Fidler and a duet will be presented by Evadell Cridder and Lois Ferrence. The closing prayer will be by Miss Florence Slonaker. A social will follow in the church social rooms.

The committee in charge of arrangements includes Mrs. Earl Shears, Mrs. Jacob Cosen, Mrs. Kenneth Deardorff, Mrs. Harry Fehl, Mrs. Fred Sanders, Mrs. Amos Kump and Mrs. Fred Hinkle.

JERRE KEEFER, 51, DIES SUDDENLY AT HOME SUNDAY

Jerre Keefe, 51, farmer and Franklin Twp. school director, died suddenly Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at his home, Gettysburg R. 3, from a heart condition.

Mr. Keefe had been in his usual health and had visited a daughter in Delaware Saturday. He was stricken suddenly Sunday afternoon and died within a short time. Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams County coroner, said death was due to a coronary thrombosis.

He was born in Franklin county and was a son of A. C. Keefe, McKnightstown, and the late Annie (Fortna) Keefe and had been a farmer all his life. He had worked for the last several years for the Thomas Truck and Body shop, Biglerville Rd., and for a number of years had worked at night for the C. H. Musselman Company.

Wedding Anniversary Today
He was a member of Flohr's Lutheran Church and for a number of years had served on the church Council. He was also a member of the Cashtown Fire Company and was a Franklin Twp. school director.

He and Mrs. Ada Wetzel Keefe would have observed their 32nd wedding anniversary today.

Surviving in addition to his wife are these children: Mrs. James Crouse, Newark, Del.; Mrs. Richard Hall, Aberdeen, Md.; and Bradley, U. S. Army Infantry, Fort Dix, N. J.; two grandchildren, a brother, Ray, Seven Stars; a sister, Mrs. Jennie Kroushour, Seven Stars, and a stepmother, Mrs. A. C. Keefe, McKnightstown.

Funeral services at the Bender Funeral Home Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock with his pastor, the Rev. Mahlon Clarke, officiating. Interment in Flohr's Church Cemetery. Friends may visit the funeral home Tuesday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock.

Rain Chases 22 Scouts Into Armory

Twenty-two Boy Scouts and four adult leaders from Plainfield, N. J., pitched camp on Pardee Field for a weekend on the battlefield but were glad to take shelter in the National Guard Armory on W. Confederate Ave. Saturday afternoon and spent the night there, returning home about 1 p.m. Sunday.

The Scouts found time for a trip over the battlefield Saturday evening after they had "dried out" at the armory. They attended Sunday morning services at St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church.

St. James To Buy Topper Property

Members of St. James Lutheran Church voted to purchase the G. W. Topper property, 108 E. Middle St., at a special congregational meeting following the 10:45 a.m. service Sunday.

The vote to purchase the property "to be used for expansion at some future date" reversed the decision taken at the annual congregational meeting in January when the group voted not to buy it.

Miss Marian Grist is shown being crowned Apple Blossom Queen Sunday afternoon at Blossom headquarters, South Mountain Fairgrounds, near Gettysburg, by William B. Wilson, president of the Fruitgrowers Association of Adams County. Miss Joan Heller, last year's queen, is shown at the left. Miss Marilyn Kump, one of 12 attendants, is shown at the right. Five Guardsmen Qualify At Gap

A special detail of National Guardsmen from the local unit, Howitzer Company, Second Battalion, 104th Armored Cavalry, went to Indiantown Gap on Sunday to qualify with their individual weapons.

The detail consisted of 1st Lt. Donald E. Doersom, company commander; 2nd Lt. James A. Orndorff, assistant executive and motor officer; Sergeant First Class Victor Reynolds, Sergeant Robert Woodson, Specialist Third Class Robert Knouse, and Private William Neal.

The party left the local armory in jeeps at 6 a.m. Sunday morning and arrived home at 2 p.m. Sunday afternoon. Each individual was successful in receiving a qualifying score with his weapon.

Lt. Doersom said the local unit has attained 100 per cent qualification with the individual assigned weapons.

The unit needs eight men to fill its company of 88 enlisted men and six officers. They are now accepting men with prior military service.

LOSES WALLET

Daisy C. Irving, 117 Breckenridge St., reported to police that she lost a lady's wallet near Buehler Hall, Carlisle St., Saturday.

Final Reminder On C-D "Alert"

Countians were reminded today by County Civil Defense Director William G. Weaver of the "Operation Alert 1958" to be held locally and nationally Tuesday morning.

The fifth national air raid drill since the end of World War II, the simulated attack will take place sometime between 9 and 11 o'clock Tuesday morning.

An "alert" signal, a long steady blast on sirens and whistles, will be given first. That will be followed by the "take cover" signal consisting of an undulating sound on sirens and short bursts on whistles.

All are asked to cooperate by taking cover during the "take cover" period of the test. Vehicular traffic will be stopped. The "alert" signal will be repeated to mark the close of the "take cover" period.

UNHAPPINESS NOT GROUNDS FOR DIVORCE

An unhappy marriage is not grounds for a divorce, the Adams County Court held today in handing down an opinion dismissing the divorce suit brought by Viola A. (Shank) Miller, Gettysburg R. 4, against Mahlon Rudolph Miller, New Oxford R. 2, and placing the costs on Mrs. Miller.

The court held that "the testimony in this case clearly indicates that the plaintiff and the defendant did not have a happy married life."

The court additionally noted that "a divorce may not be granted merely because of incompatibility of the parties or because the marriage has not been successful. It is necessary to prove that the defendant has been guilty of conduct which the legislature has seen fit to make a ground for divorce. Our statute is a municipal regulation for the protection of the community as well as the wife or husband." The judge said in quoting another court decision.

The couple wed October 19, 1948, when the wife was 18 and the husband 28. A daughter was born May 19, 1949.

"In-Law Troubles"

According to the opinion the wife objected to her husband's unemployment. "She testified that she knew of no physical disability which would prevent him from working, although she also testified that he received a government check of $200 per month for disability from a wound in his left leg resulting from a hand grenade explosion, and that he limped when he walked and was always complaining about his leg hurting. This would indicate a rather serious disability of which the plaintiff did have knowledge."

SIX ACCIDENT CASES TREATED

Molly Huber, 4, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Huber, 121 E. Broadway, was treated at the Warner Hospital for a laceration of the right eyebrow suffered in a fall Saturday.

Emory J. Null, 69, Littlestown R. 2, was treated Saturday for an injury to his left shoulder sustained in a fall.

James Myers, 40, Fairfield, received treatment Sunday for a laceration of the end of his left middle finger.

James Rankin, 8, Silver Spring, Md., was treated for a puncture wound of the inside of his right thigh sustained while sliding off a cannon on the battlefield Sunday.

Beatrice Guise, 27, 300 E. Middle St., an employee of the Howard Johnson restaurant, was treated Sunday for a sprain of the left foot.

Wayne Weaver, 17, Biglerville R. 2, underwent partial amputation of his right ring finger which was injured Sunday by a power lawn mower.

Major Flood Is Expected In Louisiana In 10 Days

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP)—A major flood is expected along the Red River from Shreveport to Alexandria during the next 10 days.

Lt. Gov. Lether Frasier Sunday called on the National Guard, civil defense and all state agencies to prepare for an emergency.

Frasier, acting governor while Gov. Earl Long was out of the state, said, "This may be a bad one."

Already there were scattered reports of floodwaters lapping at the tops of levees. Scores of roads and some farmland was under water from heavy rainfall, and levee breaks would endanger residents and livestock.

Pennsy Train Crew Found "Not Guilty" Of Manslaughter When Court Gives Directed Verdict

HONOR "MOTHER OF YEAR"; CROWN CAMPUS QUEEN

Mrs. Margaret Marie Reinsmith of Emmaus, was chosen "Mother Of The Year" during the annual Mother's Weekend at Gettysburg College. She is the wife of Carlton Kline Reinsmith and her daughter, Maryellen, is a Senior at the college.

The award was presented to her by David Salberg, Pennville, N. J., general chairman, in behalf of the sponsoring organizations.

Rain on Saturday caused cancellation of the baseball game with Albright, a tennis match with Franklin and Marshall, and AFPTC and Army ROTC drills. The May Day exercises scheduled for Memorial Field were held in the gymnasium which was packed to capacity.

Crown May Queen

Bonnie R. Bankert, daughter of Commander and Mrs. Boyd A. Bankert, Lansdale, was crowned May Queen. Her maid-of-honor was Maryellen Reinsmith of Emmaus. Other Seniors in the Queen's Court were Judith Slotterbock of Abington and Eunice Elwood of Delmont. Junior class representatives were Nancy Wagner of Norristown and Barbara Burke, New Cumberland; Sophomores, Lois Moyer, Souderton, and Barbara Brown, Altoona; Freshmen, Lynn Jacobsen, Cranford, N. J., and Lucille Jones, Salisbury, Md.

"Southern Jubilee" was presented with a variety of musical numbers and dances including the Virginia Reel, a burlesque on the "Good Ole Summertime," and a modern dance version of "Summertime." A group of Freshman girls sang several Negro spirituals. Nancy Hood, of Havertown, presided.

A water show by the Physical Majors' Club was presented in the college pool during Saturday afternoon. It was necessary to give two performances to accommodate the crowd.

The college choir presented a group of Civil War songs at the Saturday evening program in Christ Chapel with Dr. James Gilford presiding. Greetings were extended by President W. S. Paul and Mrs. Katharine Kressman Taylor of the English Department spoke as a faculty member.

College Chaplain Edwether Korte was in charge of the special Mother's service in Christ Chapel Sunday morning. The college choir sang.

Christ Chapel was filled to overflowing both Saturday night and Sunday morning with parents and friends from several states.

2 College Seniors Married In Elkton

Both students are majoring in sociology and will graduate in June. The couple plan to make their home in Madison, Wis.

BOARD WILL MEET

The May meeting of the board of directors of the Adams County Free Library Association will be held Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the main library on E. High St. President C. P. Keefe will preside.

BARLOW FIRE MEETING

The Barlow Fire Co. will meet Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock at the Barlow Fire Hall, Chief Bernard V. Miller Sr. announced today. A demonstration of a new pump will be given at that time.

A directed verdict of "innocent" was handed by an Adams County jury this morning bringing the trial of three members of a Pennsylvania Railroad train crew on charges of manslaughter to a sudden end.

W. F. Rider, 827 Wayne Ave.; C. L. Keckler, 2040 Wingard Rd., and G. P. Klinedinst, 332 Frederick Court, all of York, had been charged with manslaughter following an accident near Littlestown on the Littlestown-Hanover Rd. at 7:45 p.m. January 24 in which Larry W. White, 17-year-old Littlestown High School senior, was fatally injured.

Only two witnesses reached the stand in the trial which began at 9:30 o'clock this morning with the selection of the first jury of the May term.

Must Pay Costs

Sate Policeman Nicholas J. Spallone and Roy D. Renner, Littlestown R. 1, partner in Renner Brothers Hardware, Littlestown, and former county clerk of courts, were the witnesses. After Mr. Renner had testified, the court called attorneys to a sidebar conference.

When the conference ended, Judge W. C. Sheely told the jury that he was directing it to bring a verdict of "not guilty" against the three railroadmen. He also directed that the verdict state that the costs be paid by the defendants.

Explaining further, Judge W. C. Sheely told the jury: "In a manslaughter case there must be gross negligence, a recklessness by which the person guilty of the charge must be able to see that his actions would cause grave danger of injury to another, yet continues to carry out the action despite that knowledge."

No Gross Recklessness

"Here, while there may be negligence on the part of the railroad crew, we do not have that gross negligence. We called the district attorney (Daniel E. Teeter) to see if the Commonwealth had evidence to offer other than what had already been offered. The Commonwealth had no evidence contrary to what has already been shown. That evidence does not show a gross recklessness. There has been evidence to show that the train did not stop at the crossing and to show that there was no watchman."

"But the evidence of Mr. Renner, who was the principal witness of the prosecution, shows that the engine had started to cross the highway before the White car was in sight. Mr. Renner's testimony shows the engine two or three feet onto the highway when Mr. Renner first saw the lights of the White car come into sight, some 600 feet away from the intersection. The testimony shows that the engine had crossed the entire highway when the White car struck the side of the engine. (Continued On Page 4)

COMMITTEE AT SEMINARY MEETS

The executive committee of the board of directors of the Gettysburg Lutheran Theological Seminary convened at 2 o'clock this afternoon and heard a committee of three local residents present the question of preserving the historic old dorm at the local institution which is doomed to be razed. It has not been used for some time.

Dr. Wilbur E. Tilberg, retired dean of Gettysburg College; Dr. Fred Tilberg, historian at the National Park, and William G. Weaver appeared before the board in a move to preserve the old building.

Other questions before the committee were the approval of a new budget and other seminary matters.

The board of directors will meet at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning. At today's executive committee meeting were: Dr. Chester Simonson, York, president; Dr. E. Roy Hauser, Clearfield, Pa.; Rev. Roy Miller, secretary, Clearspring, Md.; Rev. Dr. L. Ralph Tabor, Baltimore; Rev. George E. Little, Aspinwall, Pa.; Robert T. Menges, of Menges Mills, and C. B. Christianson, Wheeling, West Va.

Two County Pastors, Families Seen On TV

Two Adams County pastors and their families appeared on the "Doorway to Life" program from Lancaster on WGAL-TV at 6 o'clock Sunday evening in a program arranged by the Adams County Ministerium in observance of National Family Week.

The Rev. Edwin P. Elliott, pastor of the Lower Marsh Creek Presbyterian Church and director of youth work for the Carlisle Presbytery, introduced the program in which his wife, their two sons, Evan and Francis, the Rev. Robert A. MacAskill, Gettysburg Presbyterian pastor, their children, Laurus and Robert, appeared.

Christian family life in the church and home was the general topic.

STARKWEATHER TO STAND TRIAL FOR ONE MURDER

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — Bantam killer Charles R. Starkweather, after three months in the isolation of a prison cell, will be ushered today into a high-ceilinged old Lancaster district courtroom to stand trial for murder.

The 5-foot-5 redhead, who once acknowledged he had "always wanted to be a criminal, but not this big a one," is charged with first-degree murder in one of 11 slayings he has admitted.

Selection of a jury will set the proceedings in motion. This task may take three days or more.

Conviction would bring a sentence of life imprisonment or death in the electric chair. The jury sets the penalty under Nebraska law.

To Plead Insanity
Insanity apparently will be the defense plea, although court-appointed defense attorneys have run into reluctance not only from the 19-year-old defendant but from family members as well on this score.

Starkweather's 14-year-old girl friend, Carl Ann Fugate, charged with murder as companion to Starkweather on his January killing spree, has been listed as a prosecution witness, although she may not necessarily be called.

Both Starkweather and Carl are charged specifically in the death of Robert Jensen, 17, of Bennett, a village 19 miles south-east of Lincoln.

Hansen said NATO would fail in its responsibilities if it did not explore all the possibilities of bringing about a relaxation of present international tension.

Delegates could see only a lengthening road to a meeting of government heads as they talked over the Soviet veto in the U.N. Security Council of the U.S. arctic aerial inspection plan and the Kremlin's insistence that it hold preparatory summit talks individually with the Big Three.

The atmosphere contrasted sharply with the North Atlantic Treaty Organization's own top-level meeting in Paris last December, when European delegates urged an approach to the Soviet Union for a summit conference on the major problems menacing world peace.

While the desire for settlement remains alive, the sense of urgency appeared to have been replaced by one of caution.

British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd told newsmen Britain wants a properly prepared, useful meeting with the Soviet Union and not a social get-together.

This settlement was reflected by other delegates, who stressed that the world requires peaceful deeds as well as words from Moscow to make a summit conference achieve anything.

Lloyd and Secretary of State Dulles met for almost two hours Sunday night in a survey of current issues. They reportedly agreed that this NATO meeting does not need to coordinate Allied positions to be taken at a summit session. They apparently felt there was time enough for that at the next NATO ministers' meeting, in December.

From Urgency To Caution

While the desire for settlement remains alive, the sense of urgency appeared to have been replaced by one of caution.

NO TOP LEVEL PARLEY LIKELY BEFORE 1959

By JOSEPH E. DYNAN

COPENHAGEN, Denmark (AP) — NATO Secretary General Paul-Henri Spaak said today the 15-nation North Atlantic Alliance would present a solidly united front if an East-West summit conference materializes. But conviction grew here that there would be no top-level parley before next year.

Spaak opened the three-day foreign minister's meeting in Copenhagen's Christianborg Palace with a warning against Soviet political, economic and psychological moves designed to weaken Western unity.

Similar cautions were issued by Luxembourg's Joseph Bech, chairman of the NATO Council, and Danish Prime Minister H. C. Hansen, host to the conference.

Hansen said NATO would fail in its responsibilities if it did not explore all the possibilities of bringing about a relaxation of present international tension.

Delegates could see only a lengthening road to a meeting of government heads as they talked over the Soviet veto in the U.N. Security Council of the U.S. arctic aerial inspection plan and the Kremlin's insistence that it hold preparatory summit talks individually with the Big Three.

The atmosphere contrasted sharply with the North Atlantic Treaty Organization's own top-level meeting in Paris last December, when European delegates urged an approach to the Soviet Union for a summit conference on the major problems menacing world peace.

While the desire for settlement remains alive, the sense of urgency appeared to have been replaced by one of caution.

"IT'S STORYTIME"

Each night at roughly eight o'clock . . . my child prepares for bed . . . for at this magic hour . . . the sandman strokes her head . . . she slowly climbs the golden stairs . . . that lead to tranquil streams . . . and harbored in my angel's room . . . is her soft boat of dreams . . . no sooner than she gets on board . . . she smiles in all her glory . . . and with a most enchanting way . . . requests I tell a story . . . and, just like dads the wide world o'er . . . I tenderly say yes . . . for I believe when I am through . . . she will be motionless . . . but as I cautiously approach . . . the ending so sublime . . . a little voice calls out to me . . . hey Dad! It's storytime.

FAMILY OF 8 TO SERVE CHURCH

WEST HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)—If you call Dr. Gregory O'Connor adventurous, he will quickly correct you and say it's the Christian spirit of helping his fellow man. The 34-year-old doctor, his wife and their six children leave Friday for an indefinite tour of service as a medical missionary in the Roman Catholic diocese of Mbarara, in Uganda, British East Africa.

There he will organize a recently built hospital and dispensary. He will receive no salary. He and his family are assured only of room and board.

The family will fly to Entebbe, Uganda, where they will begin their journey by car into the southeastern part of Uganda to the mission.

O'Connor is going at the invitation of Bishop Ogez, head of the diocese of Mbarara.

The O'Connors will be, with the exception of the teaching sisters and four white clergymen, the only Caucasians in a district of some 125,000 Africans. The nearest sizable city is Kabale, 40 miles away.

Former Umpire Is Killed In Accident

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Harry King, former American Assn. umpire, was killed yesterday when his car failed to round a curve in Fairmount Park and rammed into a stone wall.

Detectives of Park Guard headquarters said the impact tore the front seat loose and hurled the 55-year-old victim into the rear of the sedan.

Doctors at Hahnemann Hospital said King died instantly of head and chest injuries.

King, who had last been employed as manager of a cocktail bar, had worked as an American Association umpire during the late 1940's.

Four Bullet Events Off Due To Rain

Four Gettysburg College teams, baseball, track, tennis and lacrosse, had their Saturday afternoon engagements cancelled because of rain. Jack Ridinger's track squad made the trip to Allentown for a triangular meet with Muhlenberg and Albright but heavy showers made the field unfit for use and the cancellation followed.

The Bullets will meet Albright and Haverford in a triangular meet here Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Other cancellations include the Gettysburg-Albright baseball game, Gettysburg-F. and M. tennis match here, and the lacrosse match with the Diplomats at Lancaster.

Emmitsburg

EMMITTSBURG — The annual town election will be held Tuesday from 2 to 7 p.m. in the town office. Charles D. Gillelan and Everett Chrimer will sit as judges of election. Candidates for mayor and commissioner are unopposed. Miss Louise Sebold, town clerk, reported only two declarations of intentions filed. Filing for re-election were Clarence G. Fraley for burgess and J. Allen Bouey for commissioner.

A light voting is expected. Registration of all pre-school children for the Emmitsburg High School will take place on May 12 starting at 1 p.m. The parents and children will meet with Miss Bussard, county health nurse; Arvin P. Jones, principal, and Mrs. Anna P. Leary, first grade teacher. Children should be accompanied by parents, if possible, or another adult.

The Emmitsburg Civic Association met recently in the Lutheran parish hall and elected the following: President, Philip B. Sharpe; vice president, Cloyd W. Seis; secretary-treasurer, J. Ward Kerrigan; directors, George L. Wilhide and Clarence E. Hahn.

Judging of the sewing contest will take place this week. All garments are to be taken to the Emmitsburg High School sewing room and will be judged by the home economics. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel C. Hays were guests of honor at a dinner recently in honor of their 25th wedding anniversary given by their children at Taney Inn. Seventy-five attended.

Tryouts for the Emmitsburg Little League will be held at the Little League field Wednesday and Friday at 6 p.m.

Officers elected were: President, Tom Bollinger; vice president, Prof. Richard J. McCullough; secretary-treasurer, J. J. Dillon; play agent, John White.

Managers elected are: Cardinals, Leonard Zimmerman and Joe Stahley; Giants, Dick Harner and Don Byard; Rex Sox, Tip Harbaugh and Wilbur Ridge; Yanks, Jack Dillon and Ed Lings; Tom Gingle was appointed umpire-in-chief. Paul W. Claypool was named to head league financial activities and Chick Topper were appointed to arrange benefit ball parties.

The next meeting of league officials will be held at the fire hall on May 11 at 2 p.m.

The American Legion Junior League baseball team will be selected this evening at 6 o'clock. Thirty-nine boys have registered. Anyone between the ages of 12 and 17 who wish to join are asked to be present tonight at the community field. The managers are Chick Topper and George Danner.

The Silver Fancy Garden Club will hold its first annual Flower Show on June 3 from 2 to 8:30 p.m. in the Shuff Building on W. Main St. Mrs. Frank M. Butler, Taneytown, general chairman, has named the following committee chairman: Staging, Mrs. Charles Shaughnessy; schedule, Mrs. Andrew Eyster; properties, Mrs. A. A. Woman Injured In Accident Saturday

One person was injured in two auto accidents investigated by state police over the weekend. Both accidents occurred on the Gettysburg-Harrisburg Rd. north of York Springs.

Nell Kenell, 67, Harrisburg, suffered rib injuries when a car in which she was a passenger was struck by a tractor-trailer at 6:50 o'clock Saturday night two miles north of York Springs at Worley's Nursery.

Police said Lloyd C. Nickle, 60, Harrisburg, was driving south and halted at the intersection to make a left turn. A tractor trailer driven by Roy William Good, 22, New Windsor, Md., and owned by the General Brotherhood Board of the Brethren Service Center, New Windsor, also headed south, struck the rear of the halted car causing $200 damage to the tractor-trailer and $150 to the car. The injured woman was removed to the Warner Hospital by the York Springs Fire Co. ambulance.

The other accident occurred at 9:30 o'clock Sunday night at the York County line. Police said cars of Iver Faser, 23, Shamokin R. 1, and Mason N. West, 22, Trevorton, sideswiped causing $125 damage to Faser's car and $90 to West's vehicle.

Four Properties
Are Transferred

The following deeds were filed in the office of the register and recorder this morning:

Carrie E. and William T. Sterner, Aspers R. 1, sold to Robert C. and Ruth A. Smith, Aspers R. 1, a property in Tyrone Twp. for $1.

Agnes Hoffheins, McSherrystown, sold to George F. and Dorothy M. Hockensmith, McSherrystown, a property in McSherrystown for $5,800.

Robert W. and Lillana M. W. Geigley, Gettysburg, sold to Robert W. Geigley, Gettysburg, a property in Highland Twp. for $1.

Harry F. and Ruth A. Biesecker, Cashtown, sold to Edith Wachter, Gettysburg, a property in Franklin Twp. for $400.

BURY MRS. HUFF
Funeral services for Mrs. Cora A. (Ruth) Huff, 71, wife of John L. Huff, Westminster R. 1, who died on Friday morning in the Hanover Hospital, were conducted Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from Little's Funeral Home, Littlestown. The Rev. Dr. George E. Bowersox, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, McSherrystown, officiated. Interment was in St. Mary's Union Cemetery, Silver Run. Serving as pallbearers were Clayton Leister, Roy Hill, Irvin Flickinger, Orville Utz, Archie Tucker and Melvin Schuchart.

NEW OXFORD GIRL
Injured In York

Judy K. Sponseller, 20, of 225 Carlisle St., New Oxford, received facial bruises when her car ran off Roosevelt Ave. and stopped 30 feet inside Lincoln Park, York, Sunday about 4:25 a.m., York police reported.

The woman refused medical attention and was arrested for violating a city ordinance against driving vehicles in parks, police said. A passenger in the car was not injured, according to police.

MORE THAN 2,000 AT MT. AFFAIR

More than 2,000 parents attended the annual Mother's Day weekend at Mt. St. Mary's College, Emmitsburg. It was the largest attended affair in the history of the school and inclement weather is believed to have prevented at least several hundred additional from attending. The 11 a.m. Mass Sunday morning was attended by such an overflow crowd that a second mass was hurriedly arranged for immediately after the 11 o'clock service.

Parents were seated in the sanctuary, usually reserved for seminarians and priests. Every pew was occupied and the two side aisles were filled with standees. Others filled the balcony to overflowing.

The "brunch" scheduled to be served on the main campus was changed to the terrace when overnight rains made the lawn too soggy for pedestrians to walk on. Tables were placed on the large terrace and more than 2,000 were served.

The annual Glee Club concert was presented to the largest audience ever to attend this event. It followed the president's reception in Bradley Hall parlors.

Paul E. Linebaugh Free On $5,000 Bail

Paul E. Linebaugh, 55, who is accused of harboring the East Berlin bank hold-up suspect, is free on $5,000 bail pending his appearance in the federal court.

Linebaugh, who has returned to work with the York County bridge crew, faces charges of harboring John B. Bowring, 49, in his Dover R. 1 home following the robbery.

Officials of the Northumberland County prison at Sunbury declined to give additional details on Linebaugh's release since he was a federal prisoner jailed there through an arrangement with federal officials at the Lewisburg prison. They did report Bowring is still in jail in default of $25,000 bail.

Today's Talk

WE ALL NEED HELP

None of us can be said to be wholly so situated that we need nothing from anyone else. We need help from many a direction. Material help is the least that we could wish. We need most the confidence of our friends and the faith that they can give to us. Their spiritual uplift can mean more than anything else. It's the most precious substance in this world! I have never met anyone who did not respond to appreciation and kindness upon the part of others. Rare indeed are those persons who can boast of loneliness and isolation, and like it! They don't like it. All of us need short periods of being alone to accomplish definite objectives, but not as a regular program. People returning to their homeland, after a brief visit to a foreign land, are overjoyed to be back home again after that first visit.

Wherever we go we run into people who often need our advice and counsel, as well as encouragement, and whatever we give out is sure to return many-fold later on. I recall how at a New York camp for boys an old gentleman went as a visitor one day, and the boys were so kind to him that when he got back home he sent money to rebuild their boathouse and later sent several thousand dollars to help in other ways. Just for being kind! But what an investment kindness always is! People starve for kindness and consideration the same as they do for food, or love.

Just Folks

NATURE'S WAY
The sun doesn't shine on a few.
The sky doesn't favor the great
And spread out its wonderful blue
But for those who have conquered with Fate.
The breeze doesn't cool but the brow
Of the king or the prince in his hall.
But refreshes the man at the plow.
And refreshes, as brothers, us
all.
The pansies don't stop to inquire,
Ere they spread out their blooms in the sun.
If those who shall stop to admire
The world's great successes have won.
The violet is fragrant and sweet,
The lily is graceful and tall;
To the boy bare of head and of feet,
These beauties are meant for us all.
Distinctions are only man-made.
Mother Nature is never so harsh;
In color the hills are arrayed,
In color she splashes the marsh.
And the poorest of lovers receives
Her sweetest and tenderest smile.
For she is one friend who believes
That all of us here are worth while.

Building Association: The annual election of officers and directors of the Gettysburg Building and Loan Association, first and second series, was held on Saturday evening. The following persons were elected to serve for the ensuing year. President, John M. Krauth; Vice President, Prof. P. M. Bickle; Secretary, Rufus E. Culp; Treasurer, John Culp.

Named as Directors were David Kendrick, Jeremiah Culp, Wm. T. Ziegler, J. Jeff Myers, Chas. A. Ruff.

On Friday evening we had the first thunder-storm of the season, followed some hours later by another. The atmosphere seemed to be surcharged with electricity, the lightning flashes being frequent and vivid, accompanied by heavy thunder. One flash struck the residence of Dr. H. L. Baugher, on Carlisle street, about 8 o'clock. It passed down the rod on the north end of the building to the second story, then through the brick wall, tearing out the register in a heat flue, and diffused itself along the gas pipes all through the building, its course being marked by disturbance of the plastering, &c. The family were in the library room at the time and were unharmed.

The dwelling house on the farm of Jesse Leas, Tyrone township, occupied by Mr. Heikes, was struck by lightning on Friday night. The chimney was injured, part of the roof torn off and the plastering damaged.
The same night the residence of Mrs. Elizabeth Myers, in York Springs, was struck by lightning, which passed down the chimney, then along the stove pipe which split, into the lower room and thence into the cellar, damaging the carpet and floor somewhat.

Pennsy Train

Here there could be no gross negligence, because even if the train crew had failed to stop the engine and send forward a signalman to signal to traffic before the engine crossed, they could not know that their negligence would cause injury to anyone, for when the engine started across there was no one in sight to be injured. Thus the failure to stop or signal was immaterial, because the engine had already entered the highway before the White car appeared.

Agree To Pay Costs

"The attorneys for the defense have entered a demurrer which I must sustain under the evidence presented. Thus you are directed to bring a not guilty verdict."

"Ordinarily you would then have the problem of disposition of the costs, but in this case the defense attorneys have agreed for their clients to pay the costs. So we also direct that you place the costs on the defendants in your verdict."

The clerk of courts was then directed to take the verdict form to the foreman of the jury, Joseph P. Smith, McSherrystown cigar manufacturer, who filled out the verdict in the jury box.

The court adjourned until this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock when another of the list of 11 criminal cases for the current term began.

Attorneys for the railroad crew were Edward B. Bullett of Gettysburg and George Kain and Robert Brown of York.

Describes Crash Scene

Testimony of officer Spallone this morning showed the White car struck the Pennsylvania diesel locomotive, demolishing the new $4,500 Pontiac car and fatally injuring young White.

Officer Spallone said there was some dispute between the engineer, Rider and the fireman, Keckler, as to which had been operating the engine at the time of the crash. The engineer said he had been acting as watchman for the crossing and the fireman was operating the engine. The fireman, at first said the engineer was operating the engine and "neither affirmed nor denied" when the engineer claimed the fireman was operating the engine.

Spallone said a light skid mark led back 40 feet from the right rear wheel of the car. The skid showed the car traveled in a slight curve toward the left side of the highway before it hit the train, according to the officer.

No Flagmen

Renner said he saw a light approaching and thought a car was coming out of a nearby side road as he approached the railroad crossing from the east. Finally, he said, he determined that the light was the headlight of a locomotive. He said he would be able to see the headlight better than a car approaching from Littlestown because the angle of the tracks turned the engine about 30 degrees toward those approaching from the Hanover side of the crossing.

Renner said he stopped, backed up, saw the engine, "traveling about as fast as a man could walk" enter the highway and cross. The engine, he said, was "about two or three feet onto the crossing" when he saw the lights of the White car approaching "about 600 feet away on the other side of the tracks." The engine moved on and soon blocked his view of the oncoming car, Renner said. He said he did not see the engine stop for the crossing, nor did he see any flagmen at the crossing to halt traffic.

5 Jurors Dismissed

Renner said he heard no sounds from the train until after he had stopped his car and opened a window. Then he said he heard the engine give two "short sounds" on its whistle. He said he did not hear the engine bell ringing.

Members of the jury which heard the case included Evelyn C. Altoff, Littlestown; Arthur C. Baker, Gettysburg R. 1; William Barbour, Biglerville R. 2; William Bosseman, New Oxford R. 1; Mrs. Lois Campbell, 126 W. Broadway; J. Gilbert Elker, 45 E. Stevens St.; Rosie Griffith, Idaville; Mrs. Pauline King, York Springs; Mrs. Zula H. Lady, Gettysburg R. 4; Mrs. Ann V. Pentz, 709 Johns St.; John A. Shorb, Littlestown, and Joseph Smith.

Jurors excused from duty this morning, all for medical reasons were Mrs. Elizabeth V. Bream, 310 Stratton St.; Rebekah Lawyer, Littlestown R. 2; Grover McKinney, McSherrystown; George Shank, Guernsey; Francis Stevens, 2 South St.

TOMMY BOLT
WINS $5,000
AT FORT WORTH

FORT WORTH, Tex. (P)—A nervous but even-tempered Tommy Bolt—the "new" Bolt—was steady down the stretch even in his first head-to-head battle with the grim, calculating Ben Hogan Sunday.

Thus he won the $25,000 Colonial National Invitation tournament.

Bolt snapped back from a staggering first nine and pocketed $5,000 for his 2-over-par 282 for 72 holes.

Hogan Falters

Hogan faltered in the stretch this time. He took a double-bogey 6 on the final hole and ended in a tie for fourth with a 73-285.

A 30-foot putt that Bolt sank on the 13th hole was the real telling point. Ken Venturi, San Francisco, had shot a 1-under-par 69 and finished with 2-83, putting the pressure on Bolt and Hogan.

So Bolt rammed down that putt and grinned because he figured this was the payoff. He bogeyed No. 16 when he was in a trap but pulled himself back up for pars on the last two holes.

"Conservative" Golfer

Tommy, once noted for his club throwing but now a changed man indeed, played what he called "conservative golf" over the 7,021-yard Colonial Country Club course.

Venturi won $3,000 for second place. Finishing in a tie for third and winning $1,900 each were Ted Kroll, Sarasota, Fla., and Gardner Dickinson, Panama City Beach, Fla., each with 284. Dickinson shot a 69 on the final round. Kroll had a 70.

FRACTURES LEG
EXPLORING CAVE

DERRY, Pa. (P)—A 19-year-old college student suffering from a possible leg fracture was carried from a cave near this southwestern Pennsylvania community early today after a 12-hour rescue effort.

The victim, Richard LaVal, was admitted to Latrobe Hospital in fair condition. LaVal is a student at the Carnegie Institute of Technology in Pittsburgh. The hospital listed his home as Florissant, Mo.

LaVal and 14 other members of the Pittsburgh Grotto of the National Speleological Society were exploring Copperhead Cave at Hillside, six miles from here, when LaVal was injured about 12:30 p.m. Sunday.

The explorers and Derry volunteer firemen teamed up in the rescue. Dr. O. P. Oliver entered the cave, administered first aid and stayed with LaVal until he was removed about 1:15 a.m.

A member of the rescue party, who declined to be identified, said LaVal was about 1,000 feet from the cave entrance when injured. The man said the rescue team carried LaVal on a stretcher over three crevices ranging in depth from 50 to 100 feet.

Was Largest Crowd

County fire police and civil defense units reported that they directed more than twice as much traffic over the county's 100-mile Blossom Trail as last year, and estimated "this is the biggest crowd we've ever had in the county." In Biglerville traffic was so heavy that the automatic on the square, was turned off in mid-afternoon so that police could control the movement of automobiles. While police units said traffic moved briskly they also said there were no accidents.

R. C. Lott, chairman of the guide committee, reported that about 150 growers served throughout the day as guides and information officers at six hospitality booths and headquarters to accommodate the largest crowd in the history of Blossom Sunday. Co-chairmen Ralph Sandoe Jr., John Bream Sr. and Everett Weiser were in charge of rural traffic and report an extremely busy day.

Serve Apples, Juice

John Pitzer, speaking for juice consumption program, reported that hospitality booths served about twice as much juice as in previous years. More than 100 bushels of apples, donated by growers, were passed out at the booths by dozens of fruit-growers, daughters and wives.

William M. Lott, general chairman of Blossomtime, praised the hundreds of local residents for their support of the project. He said that dozens of people not connected with the fruit industry have expressed a desire to help in the future.

Prominent growers agree that a few hours of sunshine will "peak" the blossoms, but that only an occasional orchard will display blossoms beyond Thursday of this week. Trail signs will remain at local intersections throughout the week, however.

THREE POWERS
GET RED NOTE

By HAROLD K. MILKS

MOSCOW (P) — Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko delivered to ambassadors of the three Western powers today a new communication which diplomatic sources said left the formal opening of pre-summit talks still to be negotiated.

He summoned the French, American and British ambassadors and handed them the Kremlin's reply to the West's note of Saturday. This rejected participation of Czechoslovakia and Poland in discussions on a diplomatic level and agreed that Western envoys would meet individually with Gromyko.

The Western envoys said Gromyko's latest note would be published by the Soviet Union tonight and presumably released at the time in London, Paris and Washington.

U. S. Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson, who followed France's Ambassador Maurice Dejean to the Foreign Ministry, spent exactly 30 minutes inside. He said as he emerged that the situation was not changed and that he would leave as planned Tuesday for a Paris Conference of American envoys in Western Europe.

Diplomatic sources speculated that the new Soviet note acknowledged Western agreement on individual meetings as opposed to a round table session. They also speculated that the note again presented the Kremlin's preference that the time and place of a foreign ministers' pre-summit meeting only rather consider an agenda for such a meeting.

The Western envoys will meet together later to compare notes and map strategy for future meetings.

Federal Aid Road
Program Advancing

HARRISBURG (P) — The State Highways Department reports its active federal-aid highway program advanced more than 10 million dollars in March to a record high of $429,609,000.

The active program consists of projects underway, advertised for bids but not under construction and projects placed in one of the four federal aid categories.

It does not include projects in location or design stages or those not yet placed in the interstate, primary, secondary or urban extension programs.

ANNUAL MAY PROCESSION
NEXT SUNDAY

The Rev. Fr. William A. Boyle, pastor of St. Aloysius Catholic Church, announced at the morning Masses on Sunday that the annual May procession with crowning of the Blessed Mother, as Queen of the May, will take place next Sunday evening in the church. The children of the school will participate. Next Sunday morning at 7:30 Mass, members of Hanover Council No. 871, Knights of Columbus, will attend and receive Holy Communion in a body and their annual Mother's Day communion breakfast will follow in the parish hall.

There will be no religious instructions tonight as the pastor is attending the annual convention of the Harrisburg Diocesan Council of Catholic Women in Shamokin. Daily Mass in the church this week will begin at 8:15 a.m. and the children of the school will attend.

Committees for the weekly public party in the parish hall at 8 p.m. on Saturday were announced as follows: John R. Rudisill Sr., chairman; Robert Bevernour, Paul Bunty, Ivan D. Rickrode, Francis J. Riley, Clyde H. Rohrbaugh, and Earl G. Sanders; refreshments, Mrs. Clyde H. Rohrbaugh, chairman, Mrs. Paul Bunty, Mrs. George Wherley, Mrs. C. Bernard Stuller, Mrs. William Pfaff and Miss Margaret Smith.

The Holy Name Society will attend the 7:30 Mass on Sunday and receive Holy Communion in a body, and the monthly meeting of the society with election of officers will take place following the evening service. Father Boyle announced that there will be adult confirmation in St. Patrick's Cathedral, Harrisburg, at 3 p.m. on May 25 which is Pentecost Sunday. The annual offering for the Seminary will be received at the morning Masses on that day also.

Home On Furlough
Pfc. David Bucher, who has been stationed at Fort Sill, Okla., is spending a 30-day furlough at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Bucher, near town. At the conclusion of the furlough, he will report to Fort Lewis, Wash., for overseas duty in Korea.

SENATORS ARE TALK OF LEAGUE; TRAIL BY GAME

WASHINGTON (AP) — There's a new conversation piece around this town that has nothing to do with the recession or how to get along with the Russians. It's all about those sizzling Senators — the baseball variety.

This season's surprising jump-off by Washington is raising the fond hope that maybe, just maybe, the home team might crash the American League's first division. If so, it would be the first time since 1946.

With 15,000 fans on hand to give them plenty of cheers, the Senators took a firmer grip on second place Sunday by beating Kansas City 7-3 in the first game of a doubleheader. They came from behind to gain a 2-2 tie in the nightcap, which was called at the end of nine innings because of rain.

No one in his wildest fantasies expects the Senators to challenge the Yankees for the pennant. But Manager Cookie Lavagetto is saying his capital crew can finish in the first division by playing 500 ball the rest of the way.

The club has been getting clutch hitting and pitching, the players have been pulling some dandy fielding gems and the team is winning the close ones. Five of Washington's nine victories have been by one run.

This year's start is in pointed contrast with the 1957 race when Washington was out of things from the outset. The Senators lost 18 of the first 22 games last season.

BUGS ARE MERRY AS THEY PITCH, HIT, BE MERRY

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Hit, pitch and be merry, for tomorrow you may lead the National League. That's the philosophy of Manager Danny Mortaugh, whose once sleeping Pittsburgh Pirates are just a half-game from the top of the senior baseball circuit.

"Our guys are out there to swing," says Mortaugh. "We play the game inning-by-inning instead of game-by-game. If we leave men on base we forget it."

One of Mortaugh's swingers, Roman Mejias, said after Sunday's 6-2 Pirate victory over the San Francisco Giants in the first game of a doubleheader: "I think I'm a home run hitter now."

Few disputed his thought. The centerfielder hit three homers in that contest, one more than he hit in all of last season.

"Beautiful Pitching"

Mortaugh said his Pirates have won eight of their last 10 games through "just a combination of hitting, pitching and fielding."

"My pitching has been beautiful," Mortaugh added, "especially from my big three, Bob Friend, We're getting a good job in relief from Roy Face. He's pitched three times in the last three days."

Friend has an unblemished 4-0 record. Law, who will face the Giants' Ruben Gomez today, is 2-1. Kline, who won the first contest Sunday, is 2-2.

CHARLEY NEAL SAYS BUMS HAVE SNAPPED SLUMP

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Durable Charley Neal believes the Los Angeles Dodgers have snapped out of their early season slump.

Floundering badly in seventh place and off to their worst start in years, the Dodgers rebounded sharply Sunday with 8-7 and 15-2 doubleheader verdicts over Philadelphia.

Neal's flashing bat set the pace. He bashed two tremendous home runs into the left center field bleachers, drove a 430-foot triple to the center field fence, batted the left field screen for a long single and figured in six of the seven double plays the Dodgers executed.

Neal is just coming into his own after two years with the Dodgers. He stands 5-10, weighs only 150, and his power at bat is attributable solely to his perfect timing. His wrists snap his bat into the ball at the last split second, much in the Joe DiMaggio manner. He has four homers this season and his two Sunday were the climbing line drive type into the seats.

"Changed My Stance"

"I've changed my stance a bit," Neal explained. "I'm standing up straighter and have abandoned the crouch I used. I think I'll stay with this new method. I seem to get more power in my drives."

Neal said he hit a fast ball by Robin Roberts that won Sunday's first game, smashed his triple off a curve, and got his second homer on a Warren Hacker fast ball. He boosted his batting average about 40 points from .222 and hopes to break into the 300 circle this year.

On an aging ball club, Neal at 27 is one of the comers. His potential is rated the highest on the list at the moment.

"We've got good defense and pitching and speed, and we will score enough runs. I'm confident we'll be up there."

"We've had a disappointing start," he conceded today before departing for Boston where his club takes on the Red Sox Tuesday. "But there's no reason why the damage should be permanent."

"We've got good defense and pitching and speed, and we will score enough runs. I'm confident we'll be up there."

Hitting Only .217

The White Sox are hitting a paltry .217 with only Sherman Lollar and Nellie Fox supply any runs.

"Our trouble has stemmed strictly from weak hitting," Lopez continued. "We are in a batting slump that could hit any team. As a result, our pitchers have lost some tough games."

"But there's no use moaning over what's gone. The breaks all even out over a season, so I'm not worrying too much over it now. Not that I think it's going to be easy. I know it isn't, but I think we're out of the woods."

Lopez said he was sorry the Sunday doubleheader against the Yanks was rained out.

"It was a big chance to make a direct gain on the Yanks," he said.

LOPEZ FEELS SOX WILL GET GOING SOON

By ED CORRIGAN

NEW YORK (AP) — It takes more than a horrendous 4-10 record to ruffle Manager Al Lopez of the Chicago White Sox.

This is the team that was supposed to give the big, bad New York Yankees their stiffest competition for the American League pennant.

At the moment, the Sox are in last place, and Lopez calmly admits he has his problems.

"We've had a disappointing start," he conceded today before departing for Boston where his club takes on the Red Sox Tuesday.

JAYCEES GET CERTIFICATE
AT STATE MEET

The Littlestown Junior Chamber of Commerce received a "Certificate of Award" at the annual convention of the Pennsylvania Jaycees held on Thursday, Friday and Saturday in Pittsburgh. The award was for outstanding accomplishment in the field of monthly awards, Division B; first place was given to the local chapter for February 1958, for the annual Variety Show. President Clyde W. Crouse accepted the award from the state award chairman for the local chapter.

Those attending the convention from Littlestown were President and Mrs. Clyde W. Crouse, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Keefe, Mr. and Mrs. L. Robert Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Freese Jr., Wilmer Dutterer and Paul F. Boller Jr. A resume of the convention proceedings will be given at the dinner session of the Jaycees this evening, 6:30 o'clock, at Schottie's.

Firemen To Meet

Alpha Fire-Company No. 1 will make plans for the annual summer carnival and the coming parade season at the May meeting on Tuesday at the May meeting on Tuesday evening, 8 p.m., in the engine house. The social committee for the month includes Herman G. Kaler, Malcolm Harner and Luther Lemmon.

Mrs. Lloyd L. Staveland will be program leader at the monthly meeting of the United Lutheran Church women of St. John's Church on Tuesday, 8 p.m., at the church. The hostesses will be Mrs. Allie Hollinger and Mrs. William Lippy.

The May session of the Council of St. John's Church will be held at the church at 8 o'clock tomorrow evening.

A fire prevention movie and other films will be shown for the Cubes of Pack No. 84 at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the American Legion Home on E. King St. The Cubes are asked to bring the posters on fire prevention, made recently by them, for judging and a prize will be awarded for the best.

Rotary To Meet

Mrs. J. Edgar Yealy and Mrs. Mahlon Bucher will serve as hostesses at the May meeting of the Mite Society of St. Paul's Lutheran Church at the church on Tuesday, 7:30 p.m. Tomorrow is the last day for the Society to accept names to appear in the special Mother's Day bulletin.

A "student of the month report" will be presented at the dinner meeting of the Littlestown Rotarians tomorrow, 6:15 p.m., at Schottie's. The program will be in charge of the community service committee, composed of Charles E. Rabenstein, chairman, Richard A. Little Sr., Clarence R. Reck, J. Ray Reindollar, Paul E. King and Luther D. Snyder.

Parents who plan to have their children participate in a supervised recreation program at the community playground this summer should register them on Tuesday or Wednesday from 2 to 4 p.m. in the administrative office of the high school building. The number of children registered will determine whether or not the Littlestown Borough School Board sponsors the program again this year. If the average daily attendance is not 60 children or more, supervised play will not be conducted.

The Loyalty Class of St. Paul's Church will not meet this evening as previously announced. The mother-daughter banquet on Saturday will replace the May class meeting.

World News In Brief

LONDON (AP)—More than a million Britons footlogged, cycled or hitchhiked to work in London today.

Some 50,000 men and women bus drivers in the 2,000-square-mile greater London area stopped work at midnight Sunday. They are demanding an increase of 10 shillings 6 pence—$1.47 a week. Average weekly pay is $28 to $30.80. Union leader Frank Cousins said it might be a long and bitter struggle.

The entire government-run fleet of 8,400 vehicles was idle. Subway and surface trains brought hundreds of thousands of office and factory workers to London terminals—But from there they were on their own.

SEOUL (AP)—President Syngman Rhee's Liberals have retained control of South Korea's National Assembly but with much less than the two-thirds majority they hoped for.

With only four races undecided after the national election Friday, the Liberals had won 123 places in the 233-seat Legislature. This was only 6 more than the 117 required for control and far short of the 156 (two thirds) they needed to block Vice President Chang Myun's right to succession in case of Rhee's death.

MOSCOW (AP)—Pravda marked today the 140th anniversary of Karl Marx's birth by proclaiming that Marxism is the "victorious gainer of the epoch."

More than 33 million people belong to the communist party in 75 countries around the world, the communist party paper Pravda said, compared to 300 members of the party 110 years ago.

MADRID (AP)—A threatened protest boycott of public transport appeared less than 50 per cent successful today and confined to the working class districts in the city.

After early morning, streetcar, bus and subway service was practically normal.

The boycott call was made originally by the underground Socialist and Christian Democrat organizations to show popular displeasure with the Franco regime. The Communists joined in, urging a general strike, but this went unheeded.

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP)—Red Czechoslovakia charged today that the United States is giving direct military support to the Indonesian rebels.

Rude Pravo, official newspaper of the Czech Communist party, said: "For the past few days it has been apparent that the support to the rebels in northern Celebes is being transformed into direct military intervention by the United States against the Indonesian republic."

COLOMBO, Ceylon (AP)—Thirty-seven thousand government employees who had been on strike for 13 days returned to work today. But first they met and denounced their Communist-influenced union leaders, demanding they resign.

The strike crippled postal deliveries and curtailed train services. The government agreed to open negotiations at once on the demands for higher rent allowances, steps to cut living costs and firing of executives opposed by the union as reactionary.

LONDON (AP)—Seven-year-old Princess Anne lost her tonsils and adenoids today.

The operation was performed at the Hospital for Sick Children and a communique announced the condition of Queen Elizabeth's daughter.

ter immediately after the surgery was very satisfactory.

BONN, Germany (AP)—Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Vladimir Semenov, who suffered a heart attack nine days ago, was reported today to be improving. Semenov, 57, came here to take part in the signing of a trade pact.

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—The leader of the leftist Pathet Lao party piled up a sizable majority today in his election bid for a voice in the Parliament of this backward kingdom on Red China's border.

Twenty-one new seats were at stake in Sunday's nationwide election. There is no chance the one-time rebel party can control the 60-member Parliament.

ACCIDENTS OFF

HARRISBURG (AP)—The state Labor and Industry Department reports there was a drop of 4,395 industrial accidents last year from 1956.

The department said the decline was from 86,639 in 1956 to 82,444 in 1957.

The department will hold its annual state industrial and occupational safety conference here July 1-2.

HARRISBURG—Pennsylvania's top school official declared that Pennsylvania today heads the nation in boosting standards for school superintendents.

Dr. Charles H. Boehm, superintendent of public instruction, praised a move by the state council of education requiring school superintendents to hold a doctor's degree or equivalent.

U. S. REJECTS
RAPACKI PLAN
URGED BY REDS

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States' rejection of Poland's Rapacki plan decisively cut out of any summit negotiations today one of the proposals the Soviet Union has been pushing.

A note to the Communist government at Warsaw, released by the State Department, made formal and final Washington's opposition to creation of a central European zone from which nuclear weapons would be banned.

Such a step would block the arming of West Germany with such weapons, and bar them also from Western defense forces stationed there.

Renew "Open Skies" Plan

At the same time, the United States renewed its proposal for "open skies" inspection of a much larger zone including much of Europe.

The limited zone, proposed by Polish Foreign Minister Adam Rapacki, would embrace West Germany and Communist East Germany, Poland and Czechoslovakia.

The note which Ambassador Jacob D. Beam handed to Deputy Foreign Minister Winiewicz in Warsaw Saturday made U. S. policy absolute and final: Western forces in Germany must be armed with nuclear weapons in order to stand opposite "the numerically greater mass of Soviet troops stationed within easy distance of Western Europe which are . . . being equipped with the most modern and destructive weapons, including missiles of all kinds."

The United States with special politeness expressed appreciation for Poland's initiative in seeking a solution to the problems of tension and military power in Europe.

The note sought to encourage better Polish-American understanding on European military as well as other problems.

It left no doubt, however, that so far as the European situation is concerned the United States is willing to consider a change in policy there only if there is prospect of equivalent Soviet change which would radically alter the extent of the Soviet threat.

2 Mercersburg
Men Are Killed

MERCERSBURG, Pa. (AP)—Two Mercersburg men were killed and a third injured yesterday in a crash involving two autos and a Pennsylvania Railroad freight train.

State Police of the Chambersburg station said D. Melvin Meyers, 18, and Floyd L. Dorty, 20, were killed when a car driven by Meyers crashed into the freight at a little-used grade crossing.

A second car, driven by Robert E. Shaffer, 21, plowed into the rear of the Meyers car and bounced into the moving freight. Both cars were dragged about 50 feet before the train could stop. The impact derailed one freight car.

BOY IS KILLED

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP)—A car fatally injured William Bone, 5, last night as he crossed the street in front of his Scranton home. He was pronounced dead on arrival at Scranton State Hospital.

State Police said the driver, Robert F. Kelly, 30, of Carbondale, will be arraigned on a charge of involuntary manslaughter.

TOP BRASS ACTS
TO STOP STRIKE
IN AIRCRAFTS

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A high-ranking official of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service arrives today to take charge of negotiations in a last-ditch move to prevent a strike in Southern California's aircraft and missile industry.

At the same time union officials meet with Secretary of Defense McElroy and Labor Secretary Mitchell to discuss how a strike can be avoided Wednesday when old contracts expire.

Nearly 50,000 members of the International Assn. of Machinists and the United Auto Workers held mass meetings in Los Angeles and San Diego areas. They overwhelmingly backed their negotiators in rejecting company offers as unsatisfactory.

New Bargaining

This set the stage for a new round of bargaining under the direction of Arthur C. Viat, San Francisco, regional director of Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service.

The offers for new contracts were from Douglas Aircraft Co., North American Aviation, Inc., and Convair. They were basically the same, calling for hourly wage boosts ranging from 16 cents, with a 3 per cent increase next year. Current basic wage rates range from $1.65 to $7.60 an hour.

Lockheed Aircraft Corp. and IAM District Lodge 77 continue to bargain in a move to narrow the 8½-cent-an-hour gap between the company's offer and the union demand for a 8-cent-an-hour package deal.

Court Rules On Zoning Boards

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Zoning boards may control population density through lot sizes for family dwellings.

So ruled the State Supreme Court Friday in a 4-3 decision upholding a zoning ordinance of Easttown Township, Chester County. The law requires homebuilders of single-family homes to buy one acre lots with at least 100 feet of frontage.

Last year the high court had ruled this ordinance unconstitutional.

The court's ruling stemmed from an appeal filed by two construction companies, Bilbar and Tredyffrin, which had been denied permits to build homes on half-acre lots.

HARRISBURG (AP)—Community cooperation was hailed today as "a vital factor" in attracting new industry to Pennsylvania.

Harold C. Millman, president of the Pennsylvania Utilities-Railroads Area Development Assn., said similar cooperation also must come from railroads, utilities, industrial realtors and the commonwealth.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A car ran head-on into a milk truck stopped for a red light on the Baltimore Pike, two miles east of Kennett Square, yesterday, killing a Camden, S. C., woman and seriously injuring her husband.

The victim was Mrs. Evelyn Smith, 56. Her husband, William, 57, superintendent of an E. I. Du Pont De Nemours plant in his home state, suffered internal injuries and multiple cuts and bruises. He was listed in serious condition at Chester County Hospital, West Chester.

BOSTON BANS
ROCK 'N' ROLL

BOSTON (AP)—Boston today banned rock 'n' roll jam sessions from public auditoriums after 15 persons were injured following one at the Boston Arena.

Mayor John B. Hynes told a reporter those so-called rock 'n' roll musical programs are a disgrace and must be stopped. No licenses will be issued for them in the future, the mayor said.

Numerous flare-ups kept police busy Saturday night and early Sunday after a jam session at the Boston arena.

Manager Paul Brown of the state-operated arena said, "The next rock 'n' roll show at the arena will be presented over my dead body."

Police reported that gangs of teenagers left the arena after the jam session and attacked, robbed and molested passers-by.

Albert Raggianni, 19, a Navy man from Stoughton, suffered several deep stab wounds on the chest as he left the arena with two girls.

Brown said unrest developed when police ordered the dimmed house lights turned on at the arena after fans began dancing in the darkened aisles.

STOCKS MIXED

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market turned mixed in quiet trading early today after a slightly higher and vigorous opening. Most key stocks showed fractional gain or losses. The ticker tape was late briefly in the initial rush.

Gains appeared among some coppers and aircrafts. Motors showed little change. Steels, oils and chemicals were spotty.

RECIPROCAL TRADE PACT OPPOSED IN PA.

By JOHN KOENIG JR.
AP Special Washington Service
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower's proposal to extend the Reciprocal Trade Agreements Act another five years gets little support from Pennsylvania's Congressional delegation.

Opposition comes from Republican and Democrat alike—not to the principle entirely but to the manner in which the legislation is written and the way the program is being administered.

One of the major matters still remaining before this session of Congress—and one of the key-ones of foreign policy ever since 1934—the program expires on June 30 unless renewed.

Pressure From Home
The act permits the President to reduce the tariff on certain imports from other countries if they agree to do the same on certain imports from the United States. Through the years it has been a two-way street but with the U.S. still retaining a favorable balance of trade.

Pennsylvania's congressmen, however, report increasing pressure from home to alter the act to protect American business firms whose products are constantly undersold by foreign imports.

Reaction among Pennsylvanians here ranges from "violently opposed" to the program as it now stands" from Rep. John R. Saylor (R) to Sen. Joseph S. Clark's position of support for the bill but with the expressed hope that a trade adjustment provision also will be adopted.

Martin Won't Talk
Clark said he hopes to see hardships caused by import competition alleviated, but added: "Nevertheless, since foreign trade is conclusively in the best interest of the entire Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, it is my intention to support vigorously the extension of the act."

Sen. Edward Martin (R) said that since the bill is still under committee consideration he prefers not to discuss it. In former years he has supported the legislation.

Two Opposed
Rep. Thomas E. Morgan (D), acting chairman of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, said he could not support the bill as it now stands. He said pottery, glass and coal industries—all important in his home district—are hurt by foreign imports. Morgan added that he has voted against the reciprocal trade program since 1948.

Rep. Richard M. Simpson (R), opposed to the program, says "reciprocal" is a misleading label. He said that when the United States negotiates in good faith for a tariff concession from another country, and grants one itself, it finds often that the other nation imposes other barriers to American products—quota or licensing restrictions.

"In addition to her lookout duties, the back-seat driver can handle many other details to make motoring more relaxing," the council says.

"Let her light your cigarette, keep down the roar of your kids in the back seat, and chart your course. There are a thousand and one things she can do for you while you're driving."

slow-moving cars or heavy traffic.

3. Giving other persons in your car something to keep them from getting bored makes the trip go faster for both of you—and keeps friction at a minimum.

"In addition to her lookout duties, the back-seat driver can handle many other details to make motoring more relaxing," the council says.

"Let her light your cigarette, keep down the roar of your kids in the back seat, and chart your course. There are a thousand and one things she can do for you while you're driving."

"Successful businessmen will know the value of delegating authority. Yet, behind the wheel of a car an executive will try to handle the whole job of driving —often with disastrous results.

"Why to all the work, when minor parts of the job can be handled just as well by your wife?" the council asks.

"Bringing the back-seat driver up front with you—in other words, giving her responsibilities on a trip—eases your job of driving."

"It may save a life—yours, or the life of the back-seat driver who used to get on our nerves."

More males than females are born each year in the United States.

Just why, then, are there more women than men later on in life? Why the female superiority—numerically, that is—when it comes time to find a husband?

"One reason," the National Safety Council says, "is because males 15-24 years of age—the age when they're either thinking of getting married someday or counting the days till the big event—are being killed in accidents almost five times as fast as females."

The council isn't necessarily trying to promote matches between the sexes. It is concerned, though, with keeping people alive.

A recent estimate put the U. S. population at about 84,858,000 males and 86,371,000 females—about one and a half million more males than females.

"Men have always died at a faster rate than women, perhaps largely because of the more hazardous tasks they undertake and their chance-taking nature," the council said.

"But men, especially those in the 15-24 age group, are dying far, far too rapidly."

Statistics for a recent year turned up these facts on the 15-24 age group:

1. Accidents of all types take the lives of nearly five males for every female.
2. More than eight out of 10 persons killed in motor vehicle mishaps are males.
3. Almost seven out of eight persons killed in nonmotor vehicle accidents are males.
4. The young people are seven times as likely to die in an accident than from cancer, the No. 2 cause of death to persons in the category.

Both sexes are living longer today than their grandparents did, the council noted, but the so-called weaker sex has widened the gap.

Thirty years ago, the average white female lived about three years longer than the average white male. Today, she can expect to outlive her man by more than six years.

One reason women outlive men today, the council pointed out, is because they have benefited more than men from discoveries and innovations in the medical field.

Another reason suggested by the council: They have been more careful working and playing than men, and technological and social changes have made women's work easier and safer.

"Regardless of what stage of life you're at—the marriageable stage, the married stage or the aging stage—it's smart to keep your man alive," the council said.

"Don't let your boyfriend or hubby overdo things, whether it's a minor repair job around the house or a long vacation drive."

"Make sure he keeps a light foot on the accelerator, and that he's not distracted into a collision by annoyances in the car or angered into an accident by a family spat."

"Keep the men alive, gals—because the supply isn't keeping up with the demand."

It may sound improbable that a subway train could rescue persons in a boat 1,000 feet off shore, but it happened not long ago. The motorman of a New York subway train enroute to Rockaway stopped his train on the trestle connecting the Rockaways and Hamilton Beach, Queens, when he spotted a man beside the track waving. In the choppy water below was a small boat tied to a trestle support. In the boat, endangered by the rough water, were a woman and a small girl and boy.

There's at least one city where old-fashioned horse-drawn street cars are superior to buses in earning power. The borough treasurer for the City of Douglas, Isle of Man, revealed in his annual report that the city bus routes were in reality subsidized by horses. According to the report, the Douglas Corporation Horse Trams showed a profit of 4,456 pounds and the city buses a loss of 392 pounds. The horse-drawn cars, operating over the two-and-a-half-mile-long sea front at Douglas, consistently, year after year, have earned a profit.

Are you a victurist? You are if you collect old transportation tokens from trolley and bus lines. And you have plenty of fellow-hobbyists. In fact, there's an Association of Victurists, formed several years ago, which now numbers more than 250 members. The association's official journal is "The Fare Box."

In order to reduce the risks of skidding in bad weather and to provide a power reserve, Swedish State Railways have in hand a project to increase by 50 per cent the tractive capacity of their DM locomotives used on their Arctic "Iron-Ore Line."

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

That if you want to outlive your wife you'd better move to India or Ceylon. Those are said to be the only two countries left in which the life expectancy of men is greater than that of women.

That Turkish baths originated in Rome.

That, despite what you think, the state with the highest marriage rate is Nevada.

Check Your Thighbone

That Walter Brennan, who became famous in Western movies and now stars as a West Virginia farmer in the TV series, "The Real McCoys," actually speaks with a New England twang. He hails from Swampscott, Mass.

That for some reason giantesses are much rarer than giants—that is, unless you are a short guy looking for a blind date.

That if you have an ordinary build, your thigh bone should be about 27 1/2 per cent of your height. Get a tape measure and check yourself.

Geographical Center

That, according to the Fisherman Magazine, fish are being treated with sulfa drugs and antibiotics.

That if you want to live in the geographic center of the United States, go to Lebanon, Kan.

That the Pacific Ocean extends as far east as New York. Look it up on a map.

That there is such a thing as crocodile tears. When this reptile eats, the food presses against a gland near its mouth and releases tears.

Queen's Problem

That the island of Jamaica has decided against legalizing gambling casinos, in the belief they'd hurt rather than help its tourist industry.

That Queen Elizabeth has one of the world's biggest spring housecleaning problems. Buckingham Palace has more than 1,000 rooms.

That a survey showed the typical New York City office executive is 42 years old, 5 feet 11, weighs 174 pounds, lives in the suburbs, and served as a sergeant in World War II.

That if you want to get married underground the management of the Meramec Caverns at Stanton, Mo., will provide a justice of the peace free of charge.

That one tenth of the world's running water flows in the Amazon River.

Most Exhausting Thing

That a fish with perhaps the longest name in the world can be found off the Fiji Islands. Its called the humuhumunukunua-puua. But you should have seen the name that got away!

That there are 100 million color tones, but the human eye can distinguish only a comparative few.

That when Sir Winston and Lady Churchill dine out, their favorite meal consists of mussels or oysters followed by boiled chicken, asparagus, and a special bombe glace for dessert. She likes to finish off with Grand Marnier, he with champagne.

That if you feel tired and don't know why, maybe you should recall what Anne Morrow Lindbergh wrote: "The most exhausting thing in life is being insincere."

25 KILLED ON WAY TO POLLS IN COLOMBIA

By LARRY ALLEN
BOGOTA, Colombia (AP)—Long split into bitter factions, most of Colombia's voters united to elect Alberto Lleras Camargo president Sunday. Terrorist attacks pointed up his most pressing problem.

Thirty-three persons, mostly peasants on their way to the polls, were killed by roving terrorist bands. They killed 25 in an attack on two truckloads of voters near Tolima, in central Colombia, and shot down others at Hulla and Caucha, in the west.

Tolima has long been the scene of bandit raids resulting from the bitter civil war that split the Liberals and the Conservatives for years.

Has Long Lead

The two parties finally united in 1957 to throw out dictator Gustavo Rojas Pinilla and then agree on Lleras as a unity candidate under a political truce. The 52-year-old Liberal party leader had served as president in 1945-46. He is to be followed in the presidency by a Conservative in 1952.

Jorge Leyva, a Bogota lawyer, challenged the truce and ran against Lleras with the backing of extreme Conservatives. But he admitted his candidacy was only a token stand against former President Laureano Gomez, the Conservative leader who threw most of his party behind Lleras.

The first substantial returns showed Lleras leading by margins running from 30-1 to 50-1. In Bogota a 50 per cent count gave Lleras 280,000 votes to 18,000 for Leyva.

Lleras is due to take over from the five-man military junta Aug. 7.

Lleras said improving economic conditions through U.S. aid would be his other major task.

An estimated four million voted.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery

Finds Healing Substance That Relieves Pain, Stops Itching as it Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain—without surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.

Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne)—discovery of a world-famous research institute.

This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation H.*

UNEMPLOYMENT PRIZE THEME OF CANDIDATES

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Pennsylvania unemployment was the prime theme of candidates in both major parties over the week-end.

Arthur T. McGonigle, Republican organization-backed nominee for governor, called for a concerted effort by government, labor and industry that would, he said, "revitalize our economy in all fields."

In the Democratic race Lt. Gov. Roy E. Furman, backing the organization slate headed by Mayor David L. Lawrence of Pittsburgh for governor, said unemployment is the number one issue of the May 20 primary campaign.

Accused Of Hostility

McGonigle accused the Democrats of "latent hostility" toward industry in Pennsylvania as a contributing factor in unemployment.

The Democratic organization slate was comparatively quiet during the week-end, as far as the primary campaign went. Gov. Leader, organization candidate for the U.S. Senate, presided at ground breaking ceremonies for a new state park at Glendale, Cambria County.

Lawrence turned from state politics long enough to blame what he termed the nation's "cowardly foreign policy" for turmoil in the Mideast. He addressed a celebration of Israel's 10th anniversary of independence.

The field of independent Republican aspirants for the governorship was active.

Harold E. Stassen said in Pittsburgh he would win the GOP primary in Philadelphia by a two to one margin. He based his claim on what he said was a scientific study of the electorate.

At Scranton William S. Livingston declared his campaign for the Republican governorship endorsement was going "wonderfully well."

However, he was stopped from appearing on a Sunday television show in Pittsburgh when his plane was held up by weather at Harrisburg. In his place the fourth GOP hopeful for governor appeared, Harold J. Vaughn, Altoona contractor, told the TV audience Stassen is a "political vagrant" while, he said, McGonigle is beholden to the Republican leaders who slated him as organization candidate.

Fewer Officials Are Having Heart Attacks

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The attending physician to the U.S. Congress says heart attacks and coronary deaths among Congressmen and other top federal officials have been greatly reduced in the last 30 years.

Dr. George W. Calver, who has spent 30 years as medical adviser to the nation's legislators, spoke at a party yesterday in honor of Dr. Joseph B. Wolfe, chief of medicine at the Valley Forge, (Pa.) Heart Hospital and medical director of the Wolfe Clinic in Philadelphia.

Dr. Calver said that today there are no more than four or five coronaries a year, adding that 80 per cent of coronary attacks are preventable.

He attended Waynesburg College after graduating from Uniontown High School. He served overseas with the Army Air Corps during World War I and rose to the rank of master sergeant.

Dickson was active in affairs of the Kiwanis Club and was a member of the Salvation Army Board here. He was a former Uniontown alderman. He attended the Asbury Methodist Church of Uniontown.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Carrie Dickson; three stepchildren, Mrs. Dorothy Shea Burns of Fort Worth, Texas, and Thomas and Charles Shea, both of Pittsburgh; and a sister, Mrs. Harold Regan of Niagara Falls, N.Y.

UNIONTOWN EDITOR DIES

UNIONTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Joe L. Dickson, editor of the Uniontown Morning Herald, died in Uniontown Hospital at the age of 63.

Dickson had been hospitalized since April 15 for treatment of heart condition.

He became editor of the Herald in 1943 after serving as city editor for seven years. He started his newspaper career 37 years ago as a Herald reporter.

Dickson was vice president of the Pennsylvania Associated Press Managing Editors Assn.

RECESSION IN U. S. STEPS UP GOLD INTEREST

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK (AP)—There's nothing like a recession in the United States to pep up world interest in gold.

The central banks of other nations have taken about 730 million dollars worth of the U.S. hoard of the metal since the first of the year.

Gold stocks on the New York stock exchanges, and especially on those in London and South Africa have had a flurry of buying.

And the perennial plea that the U.S. raise the price of gold has taken on new life, even if the experts see it as a forlorn hope.

Other Reasons

There are other reasons than the business slump for the Europeans turning in dollars for gold. Among them: Better balances in world trade, worry over the Middle East as a breeding place for war, the U.S. easy money policy that raises the prices of U.S. Treasury issues while lowering their yield, and the fear that Washington might adopt anti-recession measures that would rekindle inflation and make the dollar's purchasing power still weaker.

There isn't any real run on Fort Knox. Its gold hoard rose by $32 million dollars last year. That's more than it has dropped this year, and the total is still nearly 22 billion dollars. This is ample to back the U.S. dollar with billions to spare.

But the recession and the prospects of big treasury deficits make gold look more alluring to other governments and to individuals abroad who can buy and hoard it—Americans can't.

Permits Foreign Buying

U.S. law permits foreign central banks to buy gold from the Treasury but forbids American citizens to buy or hold it. In many lands foreigners can buy gold on the free or black market and hoard it.

And the slump with its threat of inflationary aftermaths adds talking points for those who would like to see the price of gold go up from the $35 an ounce at which the U.S. government officially pegs it.

A San Antonio, Texas, investment banker, B. F. Pitman Jr., is urging congress to raise the price to $100 an ounce. This would give the Treasury a big windfall in the write up of the dollar value of the Fort Knox metal. He argues that the move would not only put gold miners back to work but would bolster the price of copper, lead and zinc and put these miners back to work, too.

BROWN FIGHTS ON WEDNESDAY

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Houston gets a taste of world championship boxing Wednesday when Joe Brown defends his lightweight title for the fourth time against Raul Dupas, cunning challenger listed as No. 2 contender in most ratings. Both fighters are from New Orleans.

As Dupas normally weighs several pounds over the 135-pound class limit and never has fought more than 10 rounds, the champion will be favored in the TV-radio bout.

In previous defenses, Brown stopped Wallace (Bud) Smith in 11, Orlando Zuleta in 15 and Joey Lopes in 11 rounds.

GRADUATION IS JUST AROUND THE CORNER

The Class of 1958 is coming down the home stretch. And you probably remember what's facing them. There are nights of cramming and notes to sift through, and soon there'll be exams to wrestle. (As for me, I remember a History course... thought I'd never make it.)

Yes, all of us can appreciate what our young friends or namesakes are going through. It makes it easy to understand why they are looking forward to Graduation Day—and why a fine gift is in order. I think a camera is not only a fine gift but a wise one. It's a gift that will be used—and treasured—through the years.

Stop in tomorrow, and we'll show you the many cameras available for graduation giving. Snapshot-camera prices start as low as $5.95... complete gift-boxed flash outfits, at just $9.95.

Or you may want to choose a fine 35mm camera if the graduate you're gifting is beyond the beginner's stage.

You'll see all kinds, from the simplest to the most masterful, when you stop in to choose your graduate's special gift.

AUTOMATION IN EGG BUSINESS MEANS CHANGES

By RICHARD L. GRAVES
HARRISBURG (AP)—Automation is boosting a trend toward development of large commercial egg producing plants, a top agricultural economist reports.

At the same time the trend toward automation of some egg processing operations may step up integration of the production and marketing of eggs, said O. C. Hester, economist with the Marketing Research Division of the U.S. Agricultural Marketing Service.

"Increasing labor and equipment costs and the problem of maintaining reliable candling crews have forced egg marketing firms to search for more efficient methods of handling eggs," Hester said in an AMS report.

Possible Revolution
"Until recently these firms have been somewhat slow to develop new methods," he noted, adding: "Now, however, electro-mechanical automation in handling, sizing and cartoning eggs, and the spectro-photometric method of detecting blood spots in eggs are being tested and in some cases adopted by the egg industry."

The automation developments present a possible revolution in the egg industry, which is the backbone of Pennsylvania's poultry industry.

Semiautomatic and automatic equipment for moving eggs to and from the candler, weighing and cartoning have eliminated many manual operations and speeded the flow of eggs through some plants, Hester said.

Now A Bottleneck

Introduction of electronic blood spot detectors and flash candling units "promises to reduce the number of quality factors the candler inspects and, in some instances, may take hand candling unnecessary," he added.

At present candling is one of the prime bottlenecks in egg processing plants. It is also a major labor cost in egg plants. In one test of electronic candlers, USDA egg graders found the electronic detector missed fewer blood spot eggs per 1,000 than did the candlers.

Need Large Volume
The integration feature enters into automation since a plant would need some measure of control over the production of eggs in order to obtain uniform high quality required for use of automatic inspection devices.

"In order to use this automatic equipment efficiently, egg marketing firms must operate at a large volume," Hester said.

"Competition to maintain sufficient volume may result in reduction in the number of plants and economies in marketing," he added.

Change In Pricing
Hester also noted: "Changes in the structure of the market have brought adjustments in the price-making process. Direct selling by large plants to retailers and other buyers has reduced and probably will reduce further the volume of wholesale trading in bulk eggs."

"In many markets the price to retailers now provides the basis for prices paid producers. Developments in this direction may be expected to continue."

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. Leader will name a proposed 2,000-acre state park in honor of the late Gifford Pinchot, twice governor of Pennsylvania and pioneer conservationist, at groundbreaking ceremonies Saturday.

The ceremonies will be for a new dam to form a 345-acre lake in the center of the park near Rossville, York County.
